

Friends Reunited

Old friends were reunited in March 2010. Ron Hutzler and Randy Vinnai were roommates for a long time, years ago. The pair lost touch when Randy moved away from Brantford to be closer to his family in the Simcoe area. At Ron's request, Lynnwood staff did some searching and emailing, and was able to locate Randy. When Ron and Randy met up in Delhi, where Randy now lives, they were thrilled to see each other. After a nice long visit, and taking some pictures, plans were made for a visit in May when Randy came to Brantford. Their visits will continue to happen every month, and in August the two will have a BBQ and a swim at Randy's house in his in-ground pool. Ron and Randy are excited to be able to continue their friendship. They look forward to sharing old memories, and making new ones together in the future.
